

Neil Smith (1954-2012): A Celebration of his Life and Work

Neil Smith was a teacher, activist, colleague, mentor, friend, geographer and anthropologist. His work on space, place, nature, and cities transformed the thinking of a generation of anthropology students, provoked comment and debate within the discipline, and helped us to connect across scholarly disciplines. Please join us in a celebration of his joyous spirit and extraordinary intellect.

Thursday, November 15, 2012

12:15 PM – 1:30 PM

San Francisco, Hilton Hotel

Union Square 15-16

Annual Meeting of the American Anthropological Association

For more information contact: Paige West - cw2031@columbia.edu, Julian Brash - julian.brash@montclair.edu, Molly Doane - mdoane@uic.edu, Jeff Maskovsky - jmaskovsky@gc.cuny.edu, or Tina Harris - tinahonjo@gmail.com.